In the New International Encyclopedia, vol. xvi, page 340, is a handsome colored plate of the parasites that live on flowering plants, which may be effectively utilized. Scripture Basis: . . If any would not work, neither should he eat (2 Thess. 3: 10.) The word parasite literally means one who eats at another s table, and so has come to be applied to all forms of living creatures that subsist on the bodies of other animals or plants. They are lazy, little organisms that will not labor for their own bread, so to speak, but steal their living from...
