Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What people are saying about THE ELEPHANT S CHILD I read The Elephant s Child in one sitting (very late night!) as I couldn t put it down - absolutely charming - well done!! What a truly magical little book - the sort you need on your shelf so you can pick it up again and again as it helps you to remember the important things in life - especially love. It s a must for any age: the bedtime story , the lost teenager seeking sanctuary , the over-worked stressed adult or the oldie enjoying the good old days! This book went into my soul and beyond: heartfelt, sad, loving, memorable, enlightening. This is a beautiful book - the language is rich and evocative and the story immensely touching and insightful whilst exploring themes of love and loss from different perspectives of the adults and the child . and the elephants. There is also a deeper wisdom to be found between the lines. A heart-warming tale that felt so real. I loved the writing style, relaxed and like listening to good music. Have just read The Elephant s Choice in practically one sitting and enjoyed it so much. What a wonderful insight into India in the 1950 s. This book is absolutely wonderful! Loving it and don t want it to end . so well-observed and moving. A delightful book. Good for children but to be enjoyed by adults, too. The Elephants Child - I really enjoyed it - my gut instinct that it would be ideal for a parent to read a child, discussing issues as they arise - or for a young...
