

New Jersey Law Reports Volume 23

By New Jersey. Supreme Court

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 270 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.6in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1877 edition. Excerpt: . . . 1850 are peremptory. It imposes a new duty upon the surveyors, to be performed immediately after they lay out a road. It directs them to assess the damages which an owner of land or real estate (not an applicant for the road) will sustain by the laying out a public road; and with their return of the road, also, to make a return of the assessments, certified in writing under their hands, particularly specifying the amount assessed in favor of the respective owners. In this case they have omitted this part of their duty altogether. The reason of the neglect is admitted, but ignorance of the law excuses no one. Being of opinion that it is the duty of surveyors, under the recent act concerning roads, to adjudicate in writing upon the damages sustained by every owner of land (not an applicant) taken by...

READ ONLINE

[3.31 MB]

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Natalie Abbott

This book will not be simple to get going on reading but extremely exciting to read through. Yes, it can be playful, still an interesting and amazing literature. I am very easily could possibly get a delight of reading a written book.

-- Rene Olson