Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Slavery, and the Slaveholder s Religion: As Opposed to Christianity Under the broad AEgis of the American Union, - within a government which sprang into existence with this as its earliest declaration, That all men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, and that among these are, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; - at the heart of a nation which took its place among the independent Governments of the earth, amidst those mighty convulsions occasioned by a stern combat for these declared rights that rocked two hemispheres as with an earthquake s violence, human beings are claimed as property, and held as slaves! But could those, who in the days that tried men s souls, when dangers, like crouching lions, met them in every path, those men whose hearts leaped up at the word Liberty, and whose faith in the professions of the leaders of the American people was unbounded, - men, who, believing the Americans sincere in that declaration, who believed them heroic when they ventured their lives, generous, when they staked their fortunes, truthful, when they pledged their honor, honest, when they appealed to the Supreme Judge of the Universe for the rectitude of their intentions, and believing thus, rallied around the American standard, leaving the rocky hills of the North, the fertile fields of the Middle States, who came up from the sunny South, from enthusiastic France, from liberty loving Poland, and the Africo American, who, from among the slaves, came with the cry of give me liberty, or give me death upon his lips, and entered the ranks to battle against tyranny, all, hoping...
