They HIS WIFE: RELIGION I5 had been bought for me without my knowledge by my wife, and had cost her the enormous sum of three-andtwenty shillings, for which she had no other excuse or apology to make but that she thought her husband deserved a silver spoon and china bowl as well as any of his neighbors. This was the first appearance of plate and china in our house, which afterward, in a course of years, as our wealth increased, augmented gradually to several hundred pounds in value. I had been religiously educated as a Presbyterian; and tho some of the dogmas of that persuasion, such as the eternal darees of God, elation, reprobation, etc., appeared to me unintelligible, others doubtful, and I early absented myself from the public assemblies of the sect, Sunday being my studying day, I never was without...
