I know not, Edward; I do not, as I have often told you, undertake to answer all the questions, or half of them, which anyone could readily address to me. Yet I recollect there is one point of view in which they are serviceable; the people of the Feroe Islands make candles of them. Make candles of them, sir! Yes; they draw a wick through the bird and light it; and, as the petrel is full of fat and oil, it burns for a long time. I should never have thought of such a use as this. I dare say you would not. The Auk Tribe is placed under this order. It is a bird of passage, FULMAR PETREL. visiting our coast...
