IMAGININGS: STORIES THAT STAY WITH YOU

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The twenty-two wide-ranging, illustrated stories, in this debut collection, are as chillingly inventive as they are emotionally provoking. The opening story, A FANCIFUL INTERPRETATION, tells of a farmworker, who keeps a literary journal, in which he writes of a real life encounter his mother deems imaginative fiction. A treasured family garment in THE OVERCOAT serves to cover more than just its wearer. A country walk in BOWSEY WOOD affects relationships as it mystifyingly shocks them. In JESSE JAMES, a young boy is challenged by his infamous outlaw idol. In ACROSS THE CRYSTAL SEA, inmates-weary of an institution-yearn to go to sea. In A DESIRABLE FARE, a deprived taxi driver s competing obsessions catch the throat. An irrational teacher poses an impossible question in ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-SIX THOUSAND MILES PER SECOND, setting alight the mind of a young pupil. INCIDENT ON THE ROAD TO KABUL, tells of the plight of a man under interrogation by the conquerors of his village. THE CHATTERER is set in a dimly lit barn, in which a lowly farmhand-who converses with his flock-craves more than the owner s demand for a weekly kill. In THEY CAME RUNNING, a four-man team of commandos-inexperienced and psychologically unprepared for combat-are dropped behind enemy lines. A MISJUDGED APPROACH tells of an unhappy man, bent on retribution, finding himself in a coastal restaurant. THE REPLACEMENT is set in a future when household robots are commonplace and are routinely eliminated for newer types-much to the dismay of those destined to be affected. Growing mistrust of travel passengers intent in PARANOIA, drives a man to frantic lengths to expose the reason for it. AN ALLURING ENIGMA tells of a blocked writer...
